

Dr. Rafik Beekun is professor of management and strategy and former chair of the Managerial Sciences Department at the University of Nevada. He obtained his MBA and Ph.D from the University of Texas, and his BA and MA from Columbia University, and is a former Fulbright Senior Scholar to Mauritius and to Turkey. He specializes in strategic management, business ethics, and leadership. Dr. Beekun has published in many academic journals including the Journal of Applied Psychology, Decision Sciences, Human Relations, Journal of Management, Journal of Business Ethics, etc. He has published several books, including Islamic Business Ethics (1997), Leadership: An Islamic Perspective (1999, with Dr. Jamal Badawi), and Strategic Planning and Implementation for Islamic Organizations (2006). In 2012, he served as co-editor of a special issue of the Journal of Management Development on “Practical Wisdom for Management from the Islamic Tradition.” Two of his published articles on Islam and leadership have won international awards. He has also produced a series of DVD lectures about Islamic Management.

Dr. Beekun is a past president of the Association of Muslim Social Scientists (AMSS) (2003-2007), past member of the Board of Advisors of the North American Islamic Trust as well as the Masjlis Shura of the Islamic Society of North America. He is a trustee of the Minaret Business Association, a global Muslim Chamber of Commerce. He has consulted globally including for such organizations such as King Saud University, Savola, the World Bank as well as AKEPT (The Higher Education Leadership Academy for Malaysia), and has assisted multiple global and national Islamic organizations.